It is our pleasure to issue the call for submissions to the 2018 meeting of the Society for the History of Psychology. This year we are taking inspiration from the recent, critically acclaimed film Hidden Figures. Consider 2018 your opportunity to make visible some of the unacknowledged, unrecognized, and otherwise invisible figures in psychology's past.

Note, as well, incoming SHP President John Greenwood's presidential theme: The relationship between historical and cultural psychology.

As you plan your submission we invite you to keep in mind some of our themes for 2018:

Psychology in California

Diversity in Psychology's Past

Religion and Psychology: Conflicts and Contributions

Social Activism in Psychology, including San Francisco's Activist Past

We welcome submissions of all types, including: collaborative programming, individual papers, posters, symposia, discussions, conversation hours, and skill-building sessions.

Submission Deadlines:

Collaborative Programming Wed. Sept. 13, 2017 5:00 p.m. EST

Individual Submissions Fri. Dec. 1, 2017 5:00 p.m. EST

Join us August 9-12, 2018 in San Francisco, CA!
